Pope Francis' prayer intention for the month of July is for the elderly.

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Prayer of the Week

Loving Father, I recognize that there are times and situations in which I need to shift my focus to those things that require my full attention. I pray for the wisdom that enables me to clearly identify when, where, and how to use my time and my talent. I am sorry for those times when I have become "anxious and worried" over things that stand in the way of my being a true disciple. Increase my humility so that I am open to the needs of others and not solely concerned with my self-image.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Reflection: Do I need to rethink how I order my priorities? Are my priorities based on how I will serve the Lord or on how I serve myself?

Today's first reading speaks of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for friends all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire—a son. The Gospel reading teaches us that listening to the words of Jesus should always come first in our lives.

The gospel for this week also refers to the idea of hospitality. Martha, like so many of us, was faced with chores that she considered most pressing. In today's world, despite so many technological advancements that make our to-do lists easier, we often find that we have more chores than the time needed to accomplish them. Yes, we need to prioritize, but first we need to pray for the wisdom and the perspective to recognize what is the "better part," that which will make us true disciples.

Today's psalm: "He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord." These words remind us that we are to act justly in our everyday lives. By doing so, we will gain an eternal place with the Lord... a sweet reward indeed!
